

The top row contains three photographs of a road intersection. The left photo shows a view from the sidewalk looking across the road, with a blue sensor pad visible on the concrete. The middle photo shows a view from the sidewalk looking down the road, with a blue sensor pad visible on the concrete. The right photo shows a view from the sidewalk looking across the road, with a blue sensor pad visible on the concrete.